NEW INTERURBAN TRACK.

The Summer Car is a Success and Has Come to Stay.

The Traction Company will shortly tear away part of the building at the corner of Fifth and High streets and construct a side track for the purpose of loading and unloading freight.

The summer car is proving a delightful source of pleasure to our citizens, making three round trips between the arrival and departure of regular cars, running South as far as the Fair Grounds. Between 8 and 10 p. m., the car will run as far as the Houston bridge in order to give pleasure seekers a long ride. The concert by the Elks' Band Tuesday evening was much enjoyed by those who were able to board the car and the residents along the route.

Tomorrow 300 children of St. Paul's Catholic church, at Lexington, will picnic at Hamilton Park and during the afternoon will come to Paris on two special cars, spending one hour in the city.

Sues Campbell-Hagerman College.

James W. McGinnis, accompanied by his attorney, Emmett Puryear, left Danville, Saturday, for Lexington, where he was to file suit against the Campbell-Hagerman College for $5,000 damages because the college refused to grant a diploma to Miss Sadie McGinnis, his daughter. The diploma was withheld on the grounds that she attended a dance while a student at the college. She attended a hop given by the college boys in Lexington last week and on graduation day was refused her diploma. The suit will be bitterly prosecuted. This is the only suit of the kind that has ever been filed in this part of the State.

FOR RENT.

Five nicely furnished rooms for rent, for gents. Central location.
M. L. WOODS.

Stout Must Hang.

The Court of Appeals, Judge Barker writing the opinion, affirmed the judgment of the Fayette Circuit Court sentencing Thomas Stout, Jr., to be hanged for murder. The whole court considered the case and Judges O'Rear and Nunn rendered dissenting opinions.

BLOCK LIGHTS.

I have a large stock of the famous Block Gas Lamps. Lamp and mantel complete, only 50 cents.
J. J. CONNELLY.

Elegant Chest of Sterling Silver.

Don't fail to see the 249 piece chest of Sterling Silver in a compact mahogany chest in A. J. Winters & Co.'s window today they sold to a Western customer for a big Baltimore wedding to take place on the 20th. This is one of the finest chests of silver ever produced and will be a beauty.

The Best On Earth.

St. John's Day Exercises.

The Masons will observe St. John's Day by exercises at the First Presbyterian church, this city, on the evening of June 24th. Rev. J. S. Malone, pastor of the church, will preach the sermon. There will be special music for the occasion.

K. of P. Memorial Exercises at Lexington.

The Lexington Knights of Pythias held memorial day exercises at Woodland Park Auditorium Sunday afternoon in the presence of an immense crowd. Rathbone Lodge No. 12, of this city, was there in force, as one of its members, Sir Knight J. L. Earlywine, had been chosen to deliver the principal address of the occasion. Sir Knight Earlywine far exceeded all expectations. He is well-known throughout the State as a coming young orator, and his matchless and eloquent address Sunday afternoon places him right in the front ranks of Kentucky's young orators. We regret that we cannot give the speech in full in this issue, but circumstances prevent us.

GOOD NEWS.

Mayor O'Brien Says Streets Will Be Oiled Free of Charge.

Mayor O'Brien tells us that after oiling a number of the streets he has found that the cost is nothing like what the first estimates called for, and that he finds the following streets can be oiled free of charge. This is good news for many of our citizens who felt they were unable to pay anything for the oiling. After this oiling is done we will have practically a dustless city, and with our excellent paved streets what city in Kentucky can equal us? All due to the untiring efforts of Mayor O'Brien.

The following streets will be oiled: All side streets, Pleasant and High, from Tenth to Clintonville pike on Main and through East Paris to the North Middletown pike.

The Best On Earth.

The best Refrigerator on earth is conceded to be the "Gurney." No one in Paris sells it but

A. J. Winters & Co. are no longer at the old stand.

Trimble Will Run for Lieutenant Governor.

Representative South Trimble, who recently stated that he would not stand for re-election as Representative from the Ashland district has announced that he would become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor. When asked if he would be aligned with any organization or upon any slate, Mr. Trimble said:

"I shall make my race on my own merits. I shall not be a party to any slate making if any slates are made, which I hope will not be the case."

Blue Grass Seed Wanted.

We are in the market for bluegrass seed from the stripper; also for August delivery.

James M. Brown Dies.

James M. Brown, who died at Cynthiana Friday morning of typhoid, had only recently moved from here and was a son of Mrs. James M. Brown, Sr., of Winchester street. He was a fireman on the L. & N. and would have been promoted to the position of engineer in August. He was very popular in a large circle of acquaintances. He is survived by a wife and one child. The funeral services were held at the grave in the Paris cemetery Saturday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan and Garth Lodge A. O. U. W., in which lodge he held insurance. The pall-bearers were: Judge E. T. Hinton, Ed Gorey, T. H. Roberts, Dr. William Kenney and O. B. Savely.

Paris Boy's Services Appreciated.

Will Swearingen, of this city, was elected captain of the '07 Blue and White team of State College, after the game between State College and the Lexington athletic teams. "Billy," as he is known to his fellow students, has proven himself the premier twirler of Kentucky college teams, having won thirteen games and lost two, the last being to the Lexington team Wednesday. Had the regular team of State College been behind him it is more than probable he would have won that game. Swearingen has five shutouts to his credit this season, and has proven himself one of headiest twirlers that ever played on a Kentucky College team. He is a brother of Earl Swearingen, the star pitcher, of Paris, whose record in box is something for a young pitcher to be proud of.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Exercises at First Presbyterian Church Beautiful and Impressive.

There was a large crowd present Sunday at the First Presbyterian church to witness the Children's Day exercises, which were beautiful and very impressive. This is a small church, but by the excellent manner in which the little folks carried out the program, showed that their training had not been neglected by the little band of Christian workers of this church. The recitations and songs were highly enjoyed and the congregation impressed with the earnestness of every detail of the exercises. One of the features of the services was the singing of two numbers by a quartette composed of Mrs. Frank Fithian, Miss Flora Hill, Judge H. C. Howard and Dr. Frank Fithian. We do not believe that a quartette with sweeter, richer or better trained voices can be found anywhere, and their singing on this occasion was simply grand.

Summer Necessities.

Everyone knows a hammock, porch and lawn furniture are a necessity, and every family has got to have a refrigerator. We sell the best of all kinds. Buy now.

Take Notice.

I will be in Paris for three weeks and if your machine or clocks are not running right, or out of repair in any way, bring them in to Kelley's stable, on 7th street. Work guaranteed.
12-2t JOHN L. LANCASTER.

She Was Acquitted.

Mrs. Nannie Nuchols, who killed Mrs. Viana Black Wednesday in the presence of 10,000 people at Berea commencement, had her examining trial Saturday at Richmond before Judge N. B. Turpin, and was acquitted. The defense made out a very strong case and plainly showed that Mrs. Nuchols acted in self-defense in taking the life of Mrs. Black.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and repairing defective fixtures with "STANDARD" Porcelain Enameled Ware, acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.

HURRAH FOR BRYAN!

From Courier-Journal.
There is good reason for the belief that, long before the assembling of the National Democratic Convention of 1908, William Jennings Bryan will have been put in nomination by States enough in their separate and several Conventions to leave to the larger body only the business of confirming an already agreed candidate, the selecting of his yoke-mate and the building of a Platform.

In this there appears a certain instinct of the people which often baffles the best laid plans of the most far-seeing statesmen and astute politicians. That which is about to happen to Mr. Bryan happened to Mr. Tilden. Rejected by the party leaders in 1880, when the issue of the Old Ticket would have swept the country, his unanimous acceptance came too late in 1884. The Sage of Greystone, had grown old and infirm, and could not avail himself of the glory that at length was his. He lived, however, long enough to witness the triumph of the cause which was dear to his heart in the person of a nominee put forward by himself and his immediate friends. Mr. Bryan is more fortunate than Mr. Tilden. He carries no disabilities. He has survived the crudities and hysteria of the ill-starred campaign of 1896. Though he went to a dwindling instead of a rising vote in 1900, he held his organization and following intact. The end of the campaign of 1904 saw him the one king-pin erect and standing; and since then it must be conceded that he has carried himself with a prudence and aplomb, intimating to thoughtful observers the growing, rather than the waning, man.

The Nebraskan is at the height of his power. If the party cannot be united on him, upon whom else? There is a living hope among the Democratic rank-and-file that we can carry the next election and a latten fear that the chance of doing so maybe blighted by possible factionism, muddled by misleading influences, perhaps by corrupt and corrupting influences. These Democrats refuse to take two bites at a cherry. Mr. Bryan is as good now as he will be two years hence. They intend to say so. They do not intend to wait. What we will most need will be moral support, and this they mean to heap up in sufficient measure and in advance. As a consequence each State, at least in the West and South, which meets in Convention for any purpose from now onward will follow the lead of Missouri, Arkansas and Indiana, naming him as the standard-bearer for 1908.

So much for the more or less superficial and party aspects of the case. But, behind them and below them, there lie, yet half hidden, forces immeasurable and momentous. The people have lost the control of their Government, and they begin to feel it, to see it, to know it. The Free Silver emotion, for it was little else, was merely the manifestation of a distemper of whose real nature and extent, in 1896, the country was not fully advised. Something ailed it. It cried aloud, and, in answer to its cry, various doctors appeared; many of them empiricists, most of them strangers, but all of them urging a nostrum which, as everybody ought now to realize, was not a remedy at all.

If Mr. Bryan had been elected in 1896 and the Free Silver cure-all could have been tried it would have brought no relief. On the contrary, it would have resulted in overwhelming disappointment and reaction. Just as the trend of modern thought had set against slavery the middle of the last century had the same trend set against the double standard at the close of it. Slavery had become impossible and it went its way. Free Silver was as equally impossible, and it has gone its way. Its disappearance makes Democracy whole again. It brings Democrats together once more precisely as after the War of Sections they came together, all factions and factional issues removed, the bond of agreement yet vital and eternal; the pact of the masses against the classes; the Militia against the Regulars; the Government of the people, for the people and by the people, seeking the greatest good to the greatest number, against the organized power of dishonest money getting through favoritism and privilege, government of the Syndicates, by the Syndicates and for the Syndicates.

This latter we now know rules in the Houses of Congress at Washington, if not in the White House, where as yet problematic character is playing queer politics and pursuing devious ways, to what finality no man can plainly say or see, but, as Democrats everywhere feel and believe, boding no good to any real or lasting reform.

The Republican party is a mammoth Trust. It is the greatest of all the Syndicates. It could not, if it would, mend any of the abuses which have grown up under its ministration and which appear in every department of the political, commercial and economic arena. It is responsible for the conversion of the public highways to private uses; for the diversion of the taxes from purposes of revenue to purposes of emolument; for the consolidation of all official power to a few hands at Washington, the concentration of all financial power to a few money centers; for the elimination of the spirit and sense of accountability from the party fabric; for the corruption of the very sources of the political fabric in the Legislatures and the Electorate from one end of the land to the other.

This is not an overstatement. It is fully substantiated by the revelations incident to the proceedings of Congress, the revelations incident to the Standard Oil and ending with the Pennsylvania Railway.

There is a moral awakening. There are a popular revulsion and uprising. There must be a thorough overhauling of the System, a complete change of parties in the Government, and no matter how attractive the President may appear in the character of a Reformer, or how successfully he may shape the elements so as to force his party to accept him, or defeat, in 1908, there is a prevalent belief—which may prove irresistible—that Mr. Bryan has served his probation and earned his reward; that in his person stands an actual and visible victim of all that is wanton and criminal in our politics; that with increasing years, and study and travel, has come increasing wisdom; that, in short, he can be trusted to take the helm and to steer us away from the breakers of gang-and-graft politics, having its headquarters in the Republican Steering Committee of the Senate and in the Republican Speaker, and his Rules Committee of the House.

Such is the meaning and portent of the Bryan boom and movement, which upon the "Return of the Native," will at once receive an impetus and acceleration great enough to allay all doubt of its spontaneous and popular character.

The Courier-Journal accepts the situation heartily. It is a Democrat, pure and simple. It nurses neither sores nor scores. Nothing has ever entered the head of it about Mr. Bryan which it did not long ago kick out at the heel, and it proposes to labor earnestly and unceasingly to make his election an accomplished fact, entertaining the while the very liveliest and largest hope.

SAM FIRST SAVED HIMSELF.

Then Went After His Comrade Who Was Not So Clever.

Sam Porter and Hiram Brown, both of Methuen, Mass., were rowing on the Merrimac, when the boat capsized, spilling both men into the water. Sam was a fine swimmer but was not very bright while Hiram was bright enough, but could not swim a stroke.

When Sam found himself in the water he struck out lustily for the little pier on the shore, while Hiram clung to the overturned skiff.

As soon as Sam reached the shore he was about to plunge into the water again, when a man standing on the pier said: "What are you going back into the water for? You just swam a shore." Sam paused a moment, saying: "Wall, I hed to save myself first; now I'm goin' back to fetch Hiram." And he forthwith proceeded to bring Hiram ashore.

A Head Off Collision.

"So you long for the time when the airship will be a commercial reality?" "Sure," answered the baggageman with some enthusiasm. "Think of dropping off a trunk at a way station from a height of about two miles."

"Statue of Limitation."

"Excuse me," said the old lady with eyeglasses in the art gallery, "but haven't you got any more figgers in marble?"

"These are all madam," replied the polite attendant. "Is there any particular one you are looking for?"

"Yes, I want to see the statue of limitations my husband was telling about."

Differently Expressed.

Two groups of people were seated in the waiting room of a railroad station. One consisted of a young man, and two young ladies dressed in the height of fashion, the other, a man and his wife not so fashionably attired.

They had been there only a few minutes when a girl came in whose complexion was as nearly perfect as anything in this world ever is. While she was buying her ticket the young man remarked to the ladies with him:

"Isn't Miss Cransford a beauty? Her complexion is as perfect as a rose."

At the same time the other man clutched his wife's arm and whispered: "Lord, Nan, hasn't that gal got purty hide?"

Pat's Idea of Wealth.

Casey asked Pat what he would do if he suddenly were to become rich. Pat scratched his bald head meditatively for a moment, and then replied:

"Phat would I suddenly wuz to become rich? Oi'll tell yez. Oi'd go doawn to N' Ya-ark and wa-alk intew the Walforth-Castoria an' hire the best room in th' house. Thin Oi'd leave a call fer four o'clock in th' morning. Oi'd go to bed an' sleep, and whin th' lackey cum t' call me in th' mornin' sayin':

"Pat, git up, it's four o'clock!"

"Oi'd turn over in bed an' refuse t' git up. An' when th' proprietor hisself kim up and hollered thru th' kayhole at me:

"Pat McGuire, you git up; it's four o'clock! Oi'd just rize up in my independence and say:

"Go to th' divlle wid yez, Mr. Walforth-Castoria. Oi'll not git up, blast yer impudent hide! Oi don't have t' git up!"

"An'-na' what's more, b'gob, Oi wouldn't git up. No sir—that is not till foive o'clock anyhow!"

Thrush 18 Years in Same Nest.

For the eighteenth consecutive summer a Wilson thrush has come back to a patch of thick woods on the Henry Cooley place, at McKeever, N. Y., and has picked out the same nest that has served him many times before. As usual he is accompanied by a new wife. Mr. Cooley first noticed the thrush in 1888, and, as it was particularly tame, placed a silver band on its ankle, so that he might identify it. When the thrush came to the North this year the initials "J. G." were scratched on the band. Mr. Cooley supposes "J. G." to be a friend the bird has made during the winter in the South.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Speak for it!" she cried to doggie, For she knew in her little heart, That German Syrup, home's great treasure, Could health and joy impart.

"The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup.

"We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders.

LORD GOD OWNED LAND

But Lost Title Because the Deed Was Not Recorded.

Near Worcester, Mass., is a strip of ten acres of land once owned by the Lord God. Not in the spiritual sense that he controls all the created world, but His right of deed duly made out in legal terms, duly paid for and finally carved in deep stone, where it remains to this day, a silent witness to the honest intent of the donor, Solomon Parsons, of Worcester. The boulder upon which this quaint deed is carved lies on the old Hermitage property, now owned by Henry Batjer, of New York city, who purchased it when that magnificent estate of the late A. Swan Brown, Woodland park, was broken up. The deed reads:

"Know all men by these presents that I, William C. Hall, of Worcester, in the county of Worcester and commonwealth of Massachusetts, in consideration of 125 dols, paid by the hand of Solomon Parson of the same Worcester, the receipt whereof I hereby acknowledge, do hereby give, grant, sell and convey unto God, through the laws of Jesus Christ which are made known to man by the record of the New Testament recorded by Matthew, Mark, Luke, John the Evangelist, this land to be governed with the above mentioned laws and together with the spirit of God. The said tract of land is situated in Worcester above mentioned, the southwesterly part containing ten acres, more or less, and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at the southwest corner of the lot at a stake and stone; by land of E. Daniels; thence easterly by land of S. Perry, about 37 1/2 rods to a corner of the fence; thence northerly by the land of L. Cater about 54 rods to a corner of the fence; thence westerly by land of heirs of J. Fowler about 24 rods to a chestnut tree in the wall at the corner of the land of said Daniels, and a heap of stones by the side of it. Thence southerly to the bounds first mentioned."

Though the rock is still in place, with its chisled words which were supposed to convey to the Almighty ten acres of Rattlesnake hill, it was concluded the deed would not hold because it had not been recorded. So God's title lapsed and the heirs sold the strip without hesitation.

Teaching Her to Swim.

He overheard a conversation between two youngsters selling newspapers. "Say, Harry, w'at's de best way to teach a girl how to swim?" asked the younger one. "Dat's a cinch. Fu'st you puts your left arm under her waist and you gently takes her left hand— Come off; she's me sister."

"Aw, push her off the dock."

Hargis Refused Bail.

At Jackson, the case against Judge James Hargis, charged with the murder of Dr. Cox, was called yesterday morning before Special Judge T. G. Lewis by Judge J. J. C. Bach, attorney for defendant, on motion for bail. A. F. Byrd announced, for the prosecution, that the Commonwealth would resist the application. The trial was set for tomorrow and defendant remanded to jail.

GRINNING SKULL

By Side of Each Plate and Black Tablecloth Marked Brown's Dinner.

Julius Brown, the eccentric son of the War Governor of Georgia, gave a dinner Friday on the occasion of the fifty-eighth anniversary of his birth. It was remarkable for its somberness. There were 12 persons present, one of whom was Governor Terrell. On the table was a black velvet cloth. At each cover was placed one of the black dinner cards, together with a figure of a Gibson girl on another card.

A skull was also by the side of each plate, while suspended from the center of the chandelier was another huge skull of shiny white, under which and on a black pedestal sat the figure of a monk draped in black. Candles were at each plate, and there was a candle for every course of the dinner. At the end of each course a candle was snuffed out, until there were left no lights on the table, and only those in the corner of the room were burning.

OLD BOURBON

Getting Ready to Receive Home-Comers—Let Everybody Help.

Preparations for the Bourbon Home-Coming are being made, and it promises to be an event long to be remembered by those who return to old Bourbon, their native home, on Tuesday, June 19th. The ladies have organized and gone about the work, as they generally do in such matters, in a business-like manner. At the meeting Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Russell Mann was elected chairman. The ladies were enthusiastic in the work and after a general discussion of the various plans of entertaining the large number of guests, who it is estimated, will number more than 500, committees were appointed, to arrange every detail. The big dinner which will be the most elaborate ever prepared will be spread in the pagement of the court house. In the Circuit Court room an interesting program will be carried out, including music by the Elks' band with addresses by prominent speakers.

The menu will consist of meats of all kinds, ham, mutton, beef, etc., salt rising, light corn bread, beaten biscuits, coffee, lemonade, cakes, pies, etc. Anyone desiring to donate any of the above articles will please report at the meeting to be held at Judge Dundon's office next Friday morning at 9 o'clock. All ladies are invited to be present and lend their aid in this worthy cause.

A Few Pointers on Plumbing.

First, the way to get a good job of plumbing is to get good material; then to get it put in right you must get a good plumber. Health must be considered as we go along, you take an unsanitary job of plumbing it is the most injurious thing known to the health today. It takes experience to find these things out. To do a first class sanitary job in plumbing you must know how to do it, because water runs to a bath tub and from it is no sign that your job is sanitary. ### PARIS DEFEATS BLUE LICKS

Hill's Batting a Feature—A Busy Week For the Team.

Paris defeated the Covington Blue Licks Sunday afternoon in a game that was interesting throughout. Although the visitors made more hits and fewer errors, luck was against them and the game closed in the ninth with a rally that looked dangerous.

In the opening inning Paris scored two runs without a hit to their credit, and in the fourth added three more. Moeller was sent to first, being hit with a pitched ball. Lutz sacrificed, reaching first, while Moeller was safe at second. Steiner then hit Dempsey, filling the bases. Darringer hit a hot grounder to third. Moeller scored on a fumble. Hill then made the first hit for the locals, bringing in two runs.

Paris added another run in the sixth and cinched the game with two in the eighth. The visitors were effective at the bat but could not bunch their hits. Hill's batting was the feature of the game, he securing three hits out of four times at the bat. Score, Paris 8; Blue Licks, 5.

Batteries—Paris, Darringer and Moeller; Blue Licks, Steiner and Conrad.

Hits—Paris, 7; Blue Licks, 9. Errors—Paris, 4; Blue Licks, 3. Struck Out—Darringer, 7; Steiner, 3. The local team will put in a busy week. Tuesday and Friday they play Lexington here, while they go to Mt. Sterling for two games Wednesday and Thursday. They also go to Maysville for a game.

Manager Lucas has arranged the following dates for the Paris and Lexington ball teams. At Lexington, June 17th; Paris, July 1st; Lexington, July 15th; Paris, July 29th; Lexington, August 12th; Paris, August 26th.

In a game of ball Sunday at Cynthia, between Cynthia and Cincinnati Patriots, Earl Swearingen, of this city, was in the box for Cynthia and pitched a remarkable game. The opposing team only made three hits and he had 14 strike outs. The score was 21 to 0.

CALLED A SPECIAL MEETING

Mr. O'Brien Handed Out a Hot One in Council Chamber Last Night.

Mayor O'Brien called a special meeting of the City Council last night on account of several members going to be out of town on the regular meeting night, and as he wanted a full board present to pass on the tax levy and other important matters. During the meeting Mayor O'Brien took occasion to make the following remarks:

"So far as my knowledge and information goes, the Sunday closing law is only being violated, to any considerable extent, by one saloon keeper in Paris. While the police have known for some weeks that he was selling on Sunday, they have, as yet, been unable to secure the evidence necessary to convict him. Their failure is due, not to any fault of theirs, but to the location of the place. The saloon to which I refer opens on to Main street and is closed on Sunday but the owner of it, who is also the proprietor of one of the leading hotels in the city, opens another place in the rear of the hotel on Sunday and while he or one of his employees keep watch on the police from the front door, sells whisky all day. On this account, the police have not, as yet been able to catch him but it is only a question of time until they do; if they cannot get the evidence themselves, I will take necessary steps myself to get it for them. The first time this man is convicted, I shall ask you to revoke his license and I shall also ask you never to grant any person a license to run a saloon in this hotel while the present proprietor has it leased. I do not propose, if I can help it, to have the saloon keepers who obey the law imposed upon by one who does not, simply because he has more room under control and I do not believe that you want it either. I am determined to protect the ones who close, if possible, and for that reason have asked the county attorney to investigate the matter. I shall consider a conviction in the Circuit Court sufficient grounds for a revocation of this license."

The rate of taxation for 1906 was fixed as follows: General fund, 75 cents; sinking fund, 35 cents; library, .05 cents; school fund, 30 cents; total $1.45. The improvement Committee was ordered to build a sewer from the corner of High and Eighth up Eighth to Walker avenue, thence on Walker avenue to Bourbon College, thence from Eighth on Walker avenue to Seventh street. There was an unusual amount of business transacted during the hour the Council was in session, the above being the most important. After allowing the usual amount of claims, they adjourned.

CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES.

Judge Stout Delivered Plain But Forceful Instructions to the Grand Jury.

Circuit Court convened in this city yesterday morning, with Judge R. L. Stout on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney R. L. Franklin at his post of duty.

Judge Stout's instructions to the grand jury were plain, yet forceful. He urged them to take notice of the minor offenses, which are so often looked over by grand juries, for it was no doubt in his mind that the minor offenses only led to greater ones. He gave as an illustration, the case in Lexington where a man was killed in a saloon on Sunday, a short time ago. He said if the proprietor of that saloon had been made keep the law on Sunday, that murder would not have happened. The same in regard to concealed weapons. If people could be broken of carrying concealed deadly weapons, murders would be reduced 90 per cent. in number. He then made general reference to the violators of the law and urged the grand jury to do its duty.

After the calling of the ordinary appearance docket, court adjourned until this morning.

The following compose the grand jury: John A. LaRue, foreman; Henry Ingels, Wm. Meter, J. A. Liter, T. W. Current, John W. Donaldson, Ed Cantrill, E. F. Rash, Oscar Hedges, U. S. G. Pepper, Ewalt Haley, Gano Hildreth.

He notified the bar that there would be no Court held on the 27th and 28th on account of the State Bar Association being in session at Winchester on those dates.

Lava In the Ocean.

This earth received what was probably its greatest shaking in modern times when the tremendous volcanic eruption of Krakatoa, in Sunda strait, occurred in 1883. A curious incident of that time is recalled by a correspondent who was a passenger on a steamship on the voyage between Colombo and Albany, King George's sound, some 1,500 or 2,000 miles south of the center of the disturbance. It was a beautiful night, and shortly after dinner, when the deck was crowded with passengers, the lookout shouted, "Breakers ahead!" This was in midocean, with no shoal water nearer than the Australian coast, five or six days' sail distant. The steamer was slowed down, and presently drifted into a mass of floating lava and green slime. Bucketfuls were hauled on deck and strained through cloths. Nearly all night the steamer forged ahead at half speed, with the floating scum grating against her sides, and in the morning, when clear water was reached, the sides of the ship below the water line were bare of paint and burnished like steel.

The Red Howling Monkey.

The red howler (Myiotes seniculus) is a rare monkey of the forests of tropical America. It is an extremely delicate animal and is chiefly remarkable for the extraordinary noises it makes. The cries it utters comprise almost any sound from a subdued moan to an angry roar, and it is hardly conceivable that they should proceed from a single animal. This is the animal called red monkey by Waterton in his "Wanderings in South America," where an admirable description of its weird cries may be read. These sounds are produced in a bony cavity formed by an enlargement of the hyoid, or tongue bone. In appearance the red howler is an elegant little creature, well clothed with hair of a reddish brown color. Like the spider monkeys, it is provided with a long, prehensile tail, the under surface of which is naked toward the tip, but it differs from those monkeys in having well developed thumbs.—Westminster Gazette.

One Way to Get a Dog.

"There are ways and ways of getting things," said the old secret service man, "but I wouldn't recommend some of them to a Sunday school class. Now, I knew professionally a reformed confidence man. I won't say how deep the reform went, but officially he was reformed and occupied a pretty respectable position in the community. One day I met this chap on the street, and I had something to say to him. 'See here,' I demanded, 'is this your advertisement in the paper offering a reward of $5 for the return of a lost dog?' 'Sure!' said he. 'But you don't own a dog,' said I. He grinned. 'You mean I didn't own a dog,' he corrected. 'But I do own one now—the handsome English bulldog you ever laid your eyes on, and he cost just $5.'"

Imagination and Judgment.

Dr. Eaton, president of Madison university years ago, was beloved by the students and his good opinion courted above all things. One commencement day the student who had delivered the valedictory approached the doctor and timidly asked him what he thought of the effort. The doctor looked at him a moment and then said slowly, "Edward, if you would pluck a few of the feathers from the wings of your imagination and stick them in the tail of your judgment, you would make better speeches."

Talleyrand's Thirteen Oaths.

Talleyrand took thirteen oaths of fidelity—to Clement XIII. when he entered holy orders, to Clement XIV. when he became bishop of Autun, to Louis XVI. in 1789, to the king and the constitution, to the directory in 1795, to the directory in 1796 as minister of foreign affairs, to the three consuls, to Bonaparte sole consul, to Napoleon emperor, to Louis XVIII. in 1814, to Louis XVIII. at the second restoration in 1815, to Charles X. in 1824, to Louis Philippe in 1830.

A Generous Cardinal.

Cardinal Bonaparte was a grandson of Lucien Bonaparte. He was a very charitable man. During one of his illnesses a servant came to him and said that a poor person at the door begged for alms. "Give him what money you will find in my purse," said the cardinal. "There is no money, eminence. The silver spoons are all given away. We have nothing left but pewter spoons." "Well, bring him in and give him a good meal."

Disappointed in the Boy.

"I don't know what kind of figure that boy'll cut in life," said the old man, with a sigh. He's gone and shattered all my hopes!"

"Why, what's he been a-doin' of?"

"He's been a-doin' of nothin'," was the reply, "cept writin' poetry on barn doors when I had set my stakes to make a carpenter or a congressman out o' him!"—Atlanta Constitution.

His Character.

A cook has been going round a station in the south of India with the following "character" and is somewhat surprised he is not engaged: "Abdul has been my cook for three months. It seems much longer. He leaves on account of ill health—my ill health."

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface, this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

Olympian Springs.

This famous health and pleasure resort will open for the season 1906 June 1st. These Springs are located twenty minutes drive over a good turnpike from Olympia, a station on the C. and O. railroad in Bath County, Kentucky, fifty miles east of Lexington, Kentucky, from which latter place three daily railroad connections are made at Olympia, and every train is met by local livery service.

The management offers for the pleasure of its guests a newly furnished first-class, electric lighted hotel, fresh water and mineral baths, water cure for stomach trouble and rheumatism, unsurpassed in America, and bearing the test of one hundred years.

Indoors guests can enjoy cards, billiards, bowling, American box ball, dancing every week day night and music by a splendid orchestra, while out of doors they will find long, dry, shady walks, good livery service, boating, fishing, bathing and swimming in open lake, golf, tennis and tetherball. Rates reasonable. For further information write J. C. Shropshire, Superintendent Olympian Springs Company, Olympia, Bath county, Kentucky.

THE FAIR

The Lowest Prices that Are Fair and Right.

We sell all our goods, no matter what their grade or kind, at the lowest prices that are fair and right—fair and right to us, fair and right to you. We might, in many and many a case, buy some poorer quality that would appear every bit as good as the article we offer, and be able to sell it at a lower price. But we have no use for that sort of "bargains"—for articles whose lowness of price is due to some fault of make or material. Low prices are the very life and soul of our business; but there is a limit of safety below which we never go. Everything in this store is good, honest, dependable. You never need have any doubt or hesitation about taking advantage of any low prices that we offer.

SAFER TO KILL A MAN

Than to Steal a Mule, Says Judge Speer to Law Graduates.

Speaking to the graduates of the law school of Mercer University at Macon, Ga., United States Judge Speer said: "So far as the efficiency of criminal prosecution is concerned, it is far safer to kill a man than it is to steal a mule. In the latter case every man in the community, with every sort of gun, from an old-fashioned Yager to the latest pattern of Winchester, and every canine adjutant of man, from the old-fashioned yellow dog to the latest improved fice, will turn out and hunt down the thief. In the other case it has become a custom with many to wait for the Governor or some private person to offer a reward before action is taken."

Togo Will Not Come.

Admiral Togo has decided not to visit the United States. He has received many cordial invitations to come here, and would very much enjoy visiting this country, but shrinks from the ceremonies and demonstrations that would naturally be a part of his welcome, and cannot afford the expense that the journey would cost. Admiral Togo is a poor man. He has no means except his salary, and an admiral of the Japanese navy does not receive more than an ensign in that of the United States. If he could come privately and avoid all demonstrations he would be glad to do so, but that is impossible. At one time it was thought that the Japanese government would send a fleet of its victorious vessels to Europe and the United States through the Suez Canal. The plan was seriously talked over, and Admiral Togo was to have been in command, but it has been decided that no advantage could be gained and no important purpose could be accomplished to justify such an expedition.

If Kansas really wants to know what is the matter with her, she might take another look at the remains of Senator Joseph Burton.

ELECTRICAL TEA FOR 500.

Refreshments Cooked and House Decorated With Electricity.

The clubbon of New York women was electrified, recently. It was an electrical tea given by Dr. Frances Wallach Monell, who invited 800 members of the clubs to which she belongs, to take tea with her, with everything in the way of refreshments cooked by electricity. All the 800 came. The dining room was turned into an electrical kitchen. There was a delightful little tea urn with electrical connection; the big coffee machine sent the coffee bubbling up through the coffee grains when the electricity was turned on; the chocolate simmered on small electrical stoves, and the cakes were cooked in an electrical oven. There was even an apparatus where the guests were told they could enjoy an electrical Turkish bath. It was even said that there was electricity in the punch, but no one could see that there were exciting results from it. The house was decorated with electricity, and the ferns which hung from the mirrors and chandeliers blossomed with tiny bulbs of it.

PLIGHTED HIS TROTH

And Met Death Immediately Afterward in Railway Collision.

With a love vow on his lips Oscar Cook met death in a railway collision at Atlanta, Ga., Friday. Miss Ivy Lancaster told the story how Cook died just after he had asked her to be his wife. "I was on a short seat in the rear end of the last coach with Mr. Cook, who had gone with me to the picnic. He was telling me of what he meant to do in life, and that he could never think differently of me. We were not formally engaged, but he said he would wait for me, and I told him that nobody would come between us. Mamma thought we had better wait. In a year he was to ask her again."

"Just what we were saying I don't remember now, but suddenly a blinding light bent in upon the place where we were sitting. 'God,' I heard him cry. He caught me and tried to help me from the seat. Then a crash came. I never knew anything else until I came to, as it seemed to me a long time afterward. Everything was blurred. I heard Oscar calling 'Ivy,' and I called back to him, but he never answered, and I was told my lover was dead."

WOMEN POLITICIANS.

Colorado Women Not Above Selling Votes for Auto Rides.

Woman suffrage has been condemned as a failure by prominent men, particularly men of Washington, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah, where the emancipated woman triumphantly cast their ballots with the same freedom as their husbands and brothers. Not only have prominent men affirmed the failure of women to elevate politics, but learned members of the fair sex have agreed with them. Women have not uplifted politics but politics have dragged the women down. True, they have not sold their votes for mugs of foaming beer. As a rule they do not like the taste of it. But they have done what is equally as bad, so far as principle is concerned. They have sold their votes for automobile rides.

The automobile is said to play a part among women voters that can be scarcely overestimated. Hundreds of women sell their votes for a ride to the polls in an automobile. They like to make a show, especially when their neighbors are peeping from behind the window curtains at them. Women voters have been divided into three classes: The "vine-like" creatures, who cast their votes in accordance with the views of their husbands and friends; the indifferent woman who is swayed by the politician who offers her the most for her vote; and the "strong-minded", masculine woman, who votes in opposition to her male friends' advice, just to show that she "has a will of her own".

The "lady politician" is certainly a marvel of quick, nervous energy. She knows no party loyalty. She is out for cold cash, and she gets it, too. At the art of obtaining votes she is an adept. She reads character with an accuracy that is almost startling. She knows just how to handle the different classes of women voters and she is able to sort out the men. Some of them she wins by coaxing and jolly, while others she leaves to the care of the male politicians. If she is pretty she has an advantage, but most of the women politicians are "squeezed lemons," with faces that would not bring them prizes at any beauty show.

ROYAL WELCOME

A reception in which Democrats from all over the country will be invited to take part will be tendered to William J. Bryan in Madison Square Garden, New York City, on his return from a trip around the world. William H. Hoge, chairman of the Commercial Traveler's and Hotel Men Anti-Trust League, has received a letter from Mr. Bryan, written at Constantinople, in which he accepts the invitation of the league to be present at the reception.

It is expected that Mr. Bryan will visit London in time to speak at the Fourth of July celebration and will arrive in New York about the first of August. Some States have already promised to send delegations and it is expected that a large contingent of Democrats will attend the reception, which is intended to be a national affair. The Executive Committee of the league will call on the different commercial travelers' organizations, asking for their co-operation.

Franklin on Catching Cold.

It is well known, says the New York Evening Post, that Franklin made a particular study of colds and had his own theory about them, which we believe is pretty much the theory of today. One of his assertions was that catching cold does not come from mere cold, but from unequal temperature over the body and from undistributed moisture. To prove this he made a number of observations on occasions when he did and did not suffer. A few of these follow:

By putting on a damp shirt on a dry body—yes.
By putting on a dry shirt on a wet body, though this wets the body ten times more—no.
By sitting in a room where the floor has been newly washed—yes.
By going into a river and staying there an hour (no sheets so wet)—no.
By wetting the feet only—yes.
By wetting all the clothes through the body and wearing them a whole day—no.
By sitting in a room against a crevice—yes.
By sitting as long in the open air—no.

How Cyanide Was Discovered.

Scheele in 1783 laid the foundations for the manufacture of cyanide of potassium. With prussiate of potash for its base, dried animal matter of any and all kinds was dumped into the superheated vessels containing the potash, together with iron filings and borings. A stonelike black mass resulted from the cooling, and other processes brought the final lemon colored crystals which resulted from evaporations of the solutions. From these crystals prussic acid was evolved, of which a 2 per cent solution is the pharmaceutical preparation, yet so powerful that four drops will kill a large dog. A chemist, putting a cyanide solution in a gold lined dish in 1844, discovered that the gold was dissolved in the liquid. This was the beginning of the gold plating process by the use of cyanide and the further involvement of the poison came about in electroplating, in photography and in treating refractory gold ores.—Technical World.

A Canadian Paradise.

Temagami is shaped like an octopus, with long stretched out arms, and its shores are indented with deep circling bays, island strewn and culminating in sharp points and curves that add to the beauty of this magical scene. "The lake of deep waters" is the meaning of the Indian word, and they lie very deep and cool in their bed of granite, in stillness a perfect mirror, in storm darkly menacing, with foam edged waves showing fanglike teeth. Being a hundred square miles in area, Temagami forms one of Canada's great natural reservoirs. Mighty rivers from the height of land to the north flow into it, and it in turn feeds the streams that flow southward, carrying their life giving waters through the forests to the people lands below. There are 1,400 islands in the lake, and the government has included the whole area in a magnificent forest reserve of a million and a half acres.—Kate Westlake Yeigh in Four Track News.

Jammed Fingers.

Few people have escaped jammed fingers, and as the pain caused when the finger is jammed in a door is excruciating in the extreme for the first few minutes it is well to know of some means of relief. The finger should be plunged into water as hot as can possibly be borne. This application of hot water causes the nail to expand and soften, and the blood pouring out beneath it has more room to flow. Thus the pain is lessened. The finger should then be wrapped in a bread and water poultice. A jammed finger should never be neglected, as it may lead to mortification of the bone if it has been badly crushed, and amputation of the finger must follow. Jammed toes are usually caused through the falling of heavy weights and should be treated in the same way as a jammed finger.

New York's First Sidewalk.

The first sidewalk in New York was laid by a woman, Mrs. Samuel Provost, about 1716. She was an importer and merchant and laid the sidewalk for the convenience of her customers. She had importuned the authorities to do it, but they refused, saying it was impossible. After her object lesson paving and curbing gradually came in, but for some time her sidewalk was so famous that people journeyed even from Philadelphia to see it.

Knew It.

"Well, after the dinner Borestone told a story about his exploits in Africa and then one about an Irishman he met in Switzerland."

"But I thought you were not at the banquet."

"Nor was I at this particular one, but have attended sixteen others where Borestone told these stories."

Bad Habits.

"It would be a very bad thing if farmers ever got control of the national finances."

"Why so?"

"Because from sheer force of habit they would want to be always watering the stock."—Baltimore American.

New Revenue Law.

The new revenue law, which goes into effect June 11, 1906, provides as follows:

Sections 4 and 12 of said law are as follows:

"Section 4. No person shall be granted any license to conduct any business or sell any article for which a license tax is required, who has engaged in such business, or has sold any article without license within six months next preceding the time the application is made, who will not, in addition to the regular license tax, pay a sum equal to twenty per cent thereof," etc.

"Section 12. Any person who shall engage in any business, or sell or offer to sell any article on which a license is required, before procuring the license and paying the tax thereon as required by law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, be fined not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense, unless other wise specially provided."

GOV'S CUTE GAME.*Hager Tells Why Beckham Put the "Lid" on Louisville.

From Covington Department Cincinnati Times-Star.

The mentioning of Milt McLean's name for the generalship of Kentucky is becoming quite nauseating to that gentleman and his friends. The schemes of Gov. Beckham and his political cabinet have become so painfully apparent that their repetition is making them ridiculous. Joe Pugh, who is familiar with the situation said: "Mr. McLean, in the first place, is not a candidate for the position in any sense, for, as he expressed it, that while he is friendly to the administration, they are not in earnest when they mention his name as a possible candidate for the position, and I will tell you why. The Sixth district is getting its full quota when John Lassing is appointed to the Appellate bench. The policy of Beckham and his friends is to get a candidate for each office in as many districts as possible, so as to placate the Democrats in that section, but when the day of the primaries arrives it will be found that the word is sent out for a certain candidate who has been slated for the position from the beginning. There are fourteen candidates mentioned for the position, for which McLean is named, and it is the same way with every other state position, and all to further Gov. Beckham's candidacy for the United States Senatorship."

Sam Hager, one of Beckham's lieutenants and the latter's candidate for governor, was at Latonia in a burst of confidence said: "I guess people hereabouts think Beckham is silly about putting the lid on in Louisville by enforcing the Sunday law in closing the saloons. Now we all know that Beckham is not a temperance man, but if you will stop and consider and hear in mind the 84 out of the 119 counties the State are local option, and again when you know that Louisville is against him anyhow, as was evinced in Paynter's race, you will see that the governor is a pretty cute politician. By that means the placing the additional tax of one cent and a quarter on rectified spirits he hopes to secure the temperance vote."

Child's Life Saved By a Tree.

The friendly branches of an overhanging tree saved the life of five-year-old Margaret Fowler when she fell over the edge of an 82-foot bluff that overhangs the Green river, near Morgantown, Ky. The little girl had been playing with some companions near the edge of the bluff, when she fell over. Her playmates informed her father, who ran to the river below, thinking that his child had been drowned. As he was looking for traces of her in the water he heard a cry and on looking up spied her, clinging to the branches of a tree. Bidding her to cling fast he climbed the tree and clasped her safely in his arms.

CORN WANTED.—We are in the market for Corn, and will pay highest market price for same.

STUART & O'BRIEN,

—Mrs. C. B. Smith and daughter, Martha, was the guest of Mrs. Bruce Miller, of Paris, from Wednesday till Sunday. Mr. J. G. Smedley was at the same place Sunday.

—This is the season of thunder storms. The Hurst Home is the only insurance for farmers against fire, wind and lightning. Try it.

J. H. LINVILLE, Agent.

—The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talbott, aged three months, died Wednesday and was buried at Cynthiana Thursday. This is their second child, both of who went to an early grave. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dimmitt attended the closing exercises of the Conservatory of Music at Cincinnati, Thursday, where their daughter, Miss Lula McNamara, played in grand concert. It is a rare privilege enjoyed by a few pupils of this institution to be allowed to play in this closing concert. She stands high in all her grades and a general favorite with the large and critical faculty as well as the students of the institution.

—Mrs. William Best and son, Miller, of Cincinnati, who have recently returned from California, are guests of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Proctor for the summer, hoping that the change may be beneficial to Mr. Best.

—Mr. J. H. Warford attended the meeting of the Mexican War veterans at Cynthiana, Wednesday. Sixty years ago on Wednesday, June 6th, this company left Cynthiana to do battle in their country's cause with Mexico. For several years they have been holding annual meetings at the above place and date. There are but seven alive out of this once brilliant company, five of whom were present. There has not been a death in the ranks for three years. Mr. Warford is 79 years old, hale and hearty, carrying more than one ball. He has done active service for his country in both the Mexican and Civil Wars.

—Miss Sarah Summitt, whose death was briefly mentioned in Friday's issue, died of a complication of diseases at the home of her brother-in-law

'Squire E. P. Thomason. Miss Summitt was about 68 years of age, and one of a large family of eight children, all of them preceded her to the grave, except Mrs. Thomason, others dying about the time they were grown. She and her sister, Mrs. Thomson, had never been separated. She was confined to her room about five weeks and died Thursday at 8:50 a. m., funeral Friday at 4 p. m. at the family residence by her pastor, Rev. H. R. Laird, of the Presbyterian church, burial in Millersburg cemetery.

—Miss Lelia McClintock entertained Saturday afternoon about thirty of her lady friends from 3:30 to 5 in honor of Mrs. Frank Moore, of Lexington, Va. A guessing contest was one of the most interesting features of the occasion. The prize, a handsome foreign spoon, purchased by the hostess while in Europe, was won by Mrs. Mattie Frank Baird, of Mt. Sterling. The residence was artistically decorated in June lilies and ferns. The entertainment culminated in delicious brick cream and cake. The afternoon was enjoyed by all present.

—Mr. Joe Connell, of this place, and Miss Annie Gorey, of Paris, were married this morning at the Catholic church, of Paris, Rev. Father Cusack officiating. Mr. Murray Higgins and Miss Mary Rassenfoss were the attendants. Mr. Connell is one of our enterprising business men, who was not born with a silver spoon in his mouth. He is a member of the firm of Connell Bros., extensive farmers and stock dealers. Miss Gorey is a daughter of John Gorey, who is foreman of the railroad repair shops at Paris. She is one of the charming ladies of that city, possessing many admirable traits of character. She graduated two years ago from Cardome convent, near Georgetown. The church was well filled with friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The groom in conventional black was handsome and the bride never looked lovelier. They left on the 11:05 train for Lexington, thence to Louisville in the afternoon to be present at the home-coming. On their return they will reside at Paris. They were the recipients of a number of handsome and costly presents. May their lives be happy and their future as flattering as on this memorable day when they cast their lot with each other for better or worse is the wish of all who know them.

Graduating Exercises at 'Frisco.

Among the ruins and devastation wrought by the recent earthquake, 1,800 pupils of San Francisco public school were graduated the other day at Golden Gate park. On a raised platform, surrounded by 30,000 spectators, the notables of the city sat, and the diplomas were distributed by Mayor Schmitz. The different schools were designated by raised signs. The graduates filed past the platform, where each received a diploma.

Father of Largest Family.

Thomas S. Franklin died at Cynthiana Friday morning of sunstroke. He was the father of 17 children, and had taken prizes at Kentucky fairs for being the largest family in this section of the State.

NO CONTEST

But a Plain Business Proposition.

Chance to Make $50 in Gold.

Every Young Lady in Bourbon Eligible.

People are always crying "keep the money at home," and to help carry out this motto the Bourbon News is going to make a plain business proposition to the young ladies of Bourbon county, whereby they can take a trip to any place they desire and at the same time assist in pushing a home enterprise along without any scrambling contest whatever and also at the same time everybody will get value received for their investment. This is no contest where there will be any disappointments. No contest where some young lady will run in the lead until the last minute and then the one who has been running last to come in and defeat her by having her friends to buy enough coupons or subscribe for enough papers, to make her win over the one that has led throughout the contest. Our proposition is no fake, but simply a plain business proposition and is as follows:

Any young lady of Bourbon county who will bring to the Bourbon News office on or before July 15th, 1906, 75 cash subscribers we will give her $50 in gold, to be used as she likes. Any old subscriber who is in arrears and pays up to date and for one year in advance to any of the young ladies who accept our offer will be counted in their list of new ones. This proposition is open to every young lady in the county, and just as soon as you hand in the seventy-five names with the cash subscriptions, the $50 in gold will be handed to you.

Editor and Proprietor.

Low Rates to Home-Coming.

On account of the Home Coming for Kentuckians, Louisville, Ky., the Southern railway will sell tickets from all of its stations to Louisville at rate of one first-class fare plus twenty-five cents for the round trip on June 11, 12 and 13, with return limit of June 23, 1906. An extension of this limit may be obtained to leave Louisville not later than thirty days from date of sale, by depositing ticket with the joint agent and making payment of fifty cents fee.

An elaborate program has been arranged and the occasion will prove an exceedingly interesting one to all Kentuckians. A number of special trains have been arranged for St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Texas and other points in the West, and Southwest Southeast, and a large number of ex-Kentuckians will return to their native State to visit old friends and relatives. Home Coming will be held at a large number of points throughout the State.

In order to enable those who desire to attend these celebrations, tickets will be sold from Louisville to points in Kentucky on June 16, 17 and 18th, to original purchasers of round trip tickets to Louisville account of the Home Coming, at rate of one first-class fare plus twenty-five cents round trip, minimum fifty cents, with return limit of July 23, 1906.

For schedules and additional information call on agent of Southern Railway or C. H. HUNGERFORD, D. P. A., 234 Fourth Avenue, Louisville, Ky.
